Victory, However, is Admitted to Be Not of Very Vital Importance.

OFFENSIVE MOVEMENTS

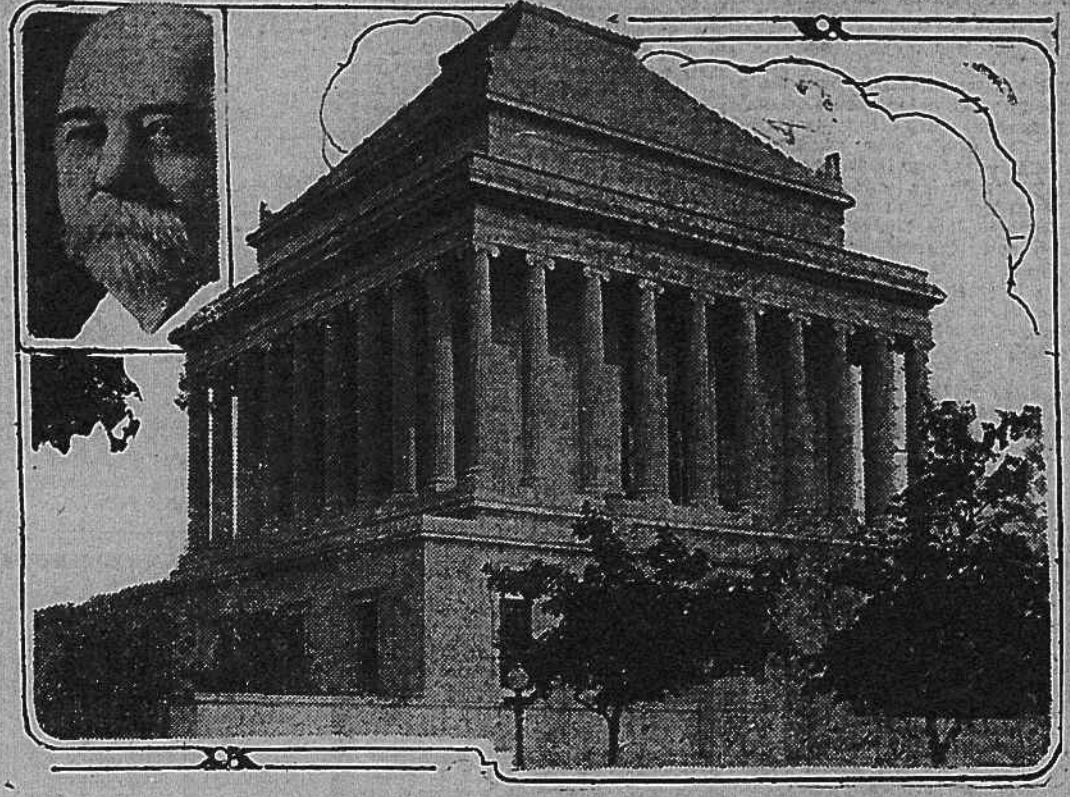

Sharp Fighting is in Progress along the Austro-Italian Battle Line Now.

(By Associated Press.)
BASEL, Switzerland, Sept. 11.—There has been a further concentration of belligerent troops near the Swiss boundaries. The government is considering the advisability of calling additional troops to the colors to safeguard the frontier.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Sept. 11.—Another success on the south Galician front resulting in the capture of 5,000 men is announced by the Russians. Even the Petrograd newspapers, however, admit that this section of the fighting area is not of the most vital importance since Field Marshal von Mackensen is still hovering along the line of minor forts which form the last remaining defenses in the way of complete control of the railroad system desired by the invaders. The Russians declare that the initiative in the isolated engagements on the southern wing is gradually passing into their hands. Nearer the center of the line von Mackensen is still pushing his way vigorously through the Jirpet marshes towards Pinsk. North and south of his headquarters strong offensive movements have been developed near Grodno and on the road to Rovno.

GERMANY CLAIMS JUSTIFICATION IN ORDUNA'S INCIDENT

Another Note Relating to Submarine Warfare is Sent to the United States.

SOFTENING OF VIEWS

Case of the Arabic Seems to Have Come Down to the Question of Indemnity.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—The note delivered to Ambassador Gerard by the German foreign office yesterday, which was believed to be a supplemental communication on the sinking of the Arabic, now is understood to be a note on the unsuccessful attempt to torpedo the Gunader Orunda several weeks ago.

The note had not been received in Washington early today and the state department had no information of its whereabouts. In circles close to the German embassy it was said the note concerned the Orunda and that when its contents were known it probably would be found that the German government claims some sort of justification for the attack on the liner.

The note is being awaited with much anxiety.

Overnight consideration of the note on the Arabic indicates a softening of views among one set of officials, who are inclined to further negotiations with Germany. Their views cannot be stated as being President Wilson's, but their views will be urged on the president before he makes up his mind what to do.

While they agree that Germany's reply is disappointing and unsatisfactory they urge that the Arabic case has come down to questions of indemnity and facts. The explanations offered by Germany for the sinking of the liner differ materially from the statements in the hands of President Wilson and Secretary Lansing. Those officials who favor further negotiations contend that a proper way to determine which set of facts is correct is to let the case go to The Hague, where, they also contend, the question of indemnity could be arbitrated without endangering the principles for which the United States has contended as governing submarine warfare.

There were indications in official quarters today that the United States had received more unofficial and informal intimations that despite the attacks on the Arabic and the Hesperian the German government actually had finally accepted the principle that unarmed merchantmen should not be attacked without warning unless they attempted to escape or resisted capture. There was no out and out official backing for the assumption, but it appeared to pervade official circles.

The new note the United States will send to Berlin probably will be delayed until the second note from Germany, now on its way, has been received.

Secretary Lansing expressed the view that the United States now was facing the question of whether it is willing to let a court of arbitration decide if the submarine commander was justified in his act. The court, it is understood, would not be expected to touch the general subject of the legality of the submarine warfare. Mr. Lansing refused to comment on the attitude of the United States.

It is admitted today, however, that after sifting the evidence submitted in the affidavits by passengers and officers of the Arabic a conclusion had been reached, but it is not being disclosed. Secretary Lansing would not comment other than to say there was no evidence before him to indicate that anyone on board the Arabic had seen a submarine before the sinking of the ship.

New Postoffice Wanted By Local Board of Trade

Need of the Same Will Be Brought to the Attention of Federal Government.

A regular meeting of the board of trade directors was held at headquarters last night. Secretary Dudders submitted a brief report showing negotiations with from fifteen or twenty concerns, several of which look very promising. The report also outlined the present status of efforts now being made to secure control of additional acreage for factory sites. Negotiations with the Baltimore and Ohio for industrial track are temporarily holding up further action on the board's part, but encouraging progress has been made up on the proposition.

The report sets forth the fact that largely through the efforts of the board the Baltimore and Ohio railroad has agreed to reduce rates on all kinds of glassware, taking fifth class to the Pittsburgh basis westbound. This means a reduction of two cents per hundred on the output of the plants of the Owens Bottle Machine Company, Hazel-Atlas Glass Company and Travis Glass Company and eliminates one of the greatest difficulties in attempting to locate new glass plants, particularly those coming from territory west of the city.

The secretary called the directors' attention to the great need of protecting the traveling public at the several dangerous crossings in the vicinity of the city and the possibility of eliminating the two grade crossings near the tin plate works, by re-location of a few hundred feet of that road. This proposition was placed before the Baltimore and Ohio general manager by the secretary early in the week and the executive committee was authorized to get back of the proposition vigorously.

The Hazel-Atlas Glass Company asks the board's co-operation to bring about the improvement of the river road, on Baltimore street, extended, and the secretary was instructed to present this matter to the street committee and the city council.

The present status of the board's efforts in connection with the proposed telephone merger was discussed and special committee continued.

The board's endorsement was requested by the Springhill School Company and a committee was appointed to act in the matter.

The great need of a new postoffice was discussed and the directors unanimously agreed to take up this proposition, the president being authorized to appoint a committee of three to collect data and to present the needs for a new postoffice to the proper government officials.

The board authorized the secretary to attend the annual convention of the National Association of Commercial Organizations Secretaries, to be held in St. Louis, Sept. 27, 28 and 29.

TWO INJUNCTIONS ARE APPLIED FOR MORE MIDSHIPMEN.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—Secretary Daniels will recommend to Congress that the number of midshipmen in the naval academy be increased to capacity. That would mean the appointment of 300 more midshipmen than will be enrolled this fall.

Lenox and had been able to think the matter over, he added, he would probably issue a statement defining his actions.

The secretary said it had not been determined just when the ambassador would return to New York or how long he would remain in Lenox but he intimated that his future movements would depend entirely upon developments.

NO RESPONSE RECEIVED FROM AUSTRIA AS YET

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—Austria had not responded today to President Wilson's request for the recall of its ambassador, Dr. Constantine Dumba. American officials declined to comment on the situation and likewise had nothing to say to Count von Bernstorff's declaration that he gave no communication to James P. Archibald, the American who carried Dr. Dumba's documents.

Nothing further was done today in the cases of Captain von Pappen, the German military attaché, or Consul General Nuber, of Austria, both involved in the incident which resulted in the request for Dumba's recall.

In the circuit court Saturday morning the South Penn Oil Company made application for an injunction to restrain Mary M. Morris, James Ordan and others from the prosecution of actions at law to recover oil royalty and to require claimants to the royalty to litigate their respective rights. The United States Fidelity and Guaranty company applied for an injunction to restrain John M. Kistner and brother from prosecuting an action at law against Dominick Serrao and to throw into chancery litigation which arose from the erection of a school building at Northview.

VILLA

Will Try to Compel Urbina to Turn over a Large Amount of Property to Him.

(By Associated Press.)
EL PASO, Tex., Sept. 11.—General Villa was located, according to reports early today, in the vicinity of the ranch of General Tomas Urbina at Nieva, eighty miles south of Santa Barbara, Chihuahua.

Villa's purpose, it is said, is to compel Urbina to turn over a large amount of property to the Villa government.

General Urbina, who has retired from the fighting line, is said to be surrounded by a large body of adherents.

The possibility of a clash between the two leaders causes uneasiness here among Villa adherents.

BERNSTORFF MAKES AN EMPHATIC DENIAL

That He Had Used or Attempted to Use Archibald as Message Bearer.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, emphatically denied today that he had used or attempted to use James F. Archibald, the American messenger of Dr. Constantine Dumba, Austrian ambassador, as a message bearer to Berlin.

In view of the repeated assertions by several newspapers that I sent messages to my government by Mr. Archibald," said Count von Bernstorff, "I wish to state that I never gave Mr. Archibald a single paper or anything else. I thought I made this plain in Washington but feel a repetition is now needed.

"I did not attempt to use Mr. Archibald as a messenger chiefly because I did not think it safe and he certainly did not prove safe."

Dr. Dumba, the Austro-Hungarian ambassador, left here today for his summer home at Lenox, Mass.

Mr. Dumba's secretary, before he left, said the ambassador was quite reconciled to the request that he be recalled and was forced to maintain silence because of the position he occupied. After he had reached

CANADIAN RAILROAD BUILDER DEAD NOW

In the Royal Victoria Hospital in the City of Montreal in Canada.

(By Associated Press.)
MONTREAL, Canada, Sept. 11.—Sir William Van Horne died at 2:10 p. m., today.

MONTREAL, Sept. 11.—Sir William Van Horne, for years prominent in trans-continental railroad development in Canada, is dying in the Royal Victoria hospital here. Virtually all hope for his recovery, it was announced this afternoon, has been abandoned by his physicians.

Sir William has been seriously ill at the hospital for more than two weeks. He went there on the recommendation of his doctors for an operation for abdominal aortic aneurysm.

Sir William is 72 years old. He was born in the United States and virtually from boyhood has been connected with railroad work and its development both in the United States and Canada.

Sir William Van Horne rose from the foot of the ladder to wealth and fame as one of the so-called empire builders of Canada. Although he was born in the United States in Will county, Ill., February 3, 1843, and gained railway experience through many years connection with railroads in the central and western United States, it was after his moving to Canada and becoming general manager of the Canadian Pacific railway in 1882 that he achieved his most notable triumph by pushing the railway to completion across the
